

Allen & Overy LLP

LLM Commercial Legal Practice

What is the Allen & Overy LLM Commercial Legal Practice?

Those joining Allen & Overy in March 2024 (or before) will study our market-leading fast track LLM Commercial Legal Practice programme (combining a Master's level qualification with the LPC) at BPP University Law School.

This programme will:

- incorporate three City elective modules which are designed to equip you with the legal knowledge you will need for your career at Allen & Overy;
- go beyond the law and incorporate two additional business modules geared towards developing your commercial awareness and understanding of the motivations and expectations of both your firm and its clients;
- offer you a highly interactive learning experience through attendance at primarily face-to-face small group sessions;
- provide you with quality learning materials which have been designed in collaboration with Allen & Overy;
- provide you with a Master's qualification; and
- give you the opportunity to develop your knowledge of legal technology by studying the optional Legal Technology, Innovation and Design module.

You will be supported throughout by BPP's experienced tutors and educational technology including the provision of:

- one-to-one sessions with a personal tutor;
- a virtual learning environment;
- assessment practice with tutor feedback; and
- coaching for oral and written skills.
